

TREASURES OF WISDOM

(From the writings of Martha W. Robinson)
Meditations for Feb. 2012

1. My Father, keep me Day by Day:
Guide Thou my footsteps All the Way.
Keep me unspotted, free from sin,
Loyal without – And pure within.
2. Take all the time you have, all the thought you have, all the energy you have to spare, and follow on to know Jesus, -Just Jesus!
3. There is a majestic alteration of the human life when Jesus has His entire way, when He rules and reigns in all your life, when all is possessed by Him, when you have seen the King.
4. Our Heavenly Father lets us have all we are willing to take of His Spirit.
5. If you won't let Him have possession when you are being tried in your daily life, in the hours of your testing; you will soon be the one to be testing others.
6. Look out for careless tongues and quick speeches.
7. Love others as Christ loved you.
8. You are happier and healthier when you do not get up cross, but get up "in God."
9. Go right on when you fail – never look back but keep looking for God's will.
10. Our God is not a trifling God. He likes a vessel to get down very low, to be so passive, He has that vessel for use at any moment, that it can be anywhere at any moment.
11. You must give up your own choice, your own will, your own heart, your own plans and your own opinions.
12. A vessel is nothing. It has no feelings, no desires, no will, no plans. It is wholly in the hands of the One who owns it.
13. Crucifixion of the flesh, -- the will --the mind -- ambition, desire, all these things go as we go on into abandonment (complete surrender) to His Holy will.
14. Each thing you think God wants you to do ought to be done definitely and promptly, just as soon as He wants you to do it, when you don't feel like it, as earnestly as when you do.
15. To really fulfill there has to be the wholesome taking of the trial and bearing the cross for Jesus, when things aren't so easy.

16. Give me the peace and joy interiorly and exteriorly belonging to the baptism of the Holy Spirit.
17. When He has conquered you, He will set you to conquer.
18. A burden of “know how” is a peculiar handicap to our faith. It is God that knows how.
19. Jesus is all that is necessary.
20. Just as long as God Almighty finds anyone in whom faith resides He is bound to manifest Himself.
21. No child of God, no Christian, is ever fully prepared for the ministry till he can bear the stress of a busy life and yet keep in prayer and keep in God, so his prayer and life and Bible study measure up.
22. The first sign of life is not intense desire to go to work; it is the awakening of the heart to the wonder of just Jesus Christ Himself.
23. If we looked at Jesus more – rather than ourselves, our friends, our trials, our failures, conditions of life, the world and flesh, and the devil, -- we could reflect His image.
24. Tell me whether the first thought of your heart is Jesus Christ, and I will tell you whether you have the blessed hope or not.
25. A simple way to escape from “you” – just count your blessings.
27. You are just as dependent now as before you were saved.
28. You may not be called to have great gifts as some others, but no one is called to love Jesus more greatly than you are called to love him.
29. How often we find the victory not given because we fail to tread bravely where He calls.
